CANADA TIP

Sales Tax Is Added at the Cash Register

In most Canadian stores, the price tag does not include sales tax. The tax is added when you pay.

For example:

Price tag: $40.00

Total after tax (Ontario): about $45.20

Many clothing stores also have seasonal sales, clearance racks, and student or senior discounts. Always check the signs before you pay.

Buying a New Jacket

Last Saturday, Maria went shopping because she needed a new jacket. She visited three different stores before she found one she liked. The first jacket was too expensive. The second one was the right price, but it was too small.

At the third store, a sales assistant greeted her politely and helped her find the correct size. Maria tried on a blue jacket. It fit perfectly and was on sale for $65.

She paid with her debit card and received a receipt. The sales assistant asked if she wanted a bag, but Maria said no because she brought her own reusable shopping bag.

Maria was happy because she found a good-quality jacket at a reasonable price.
