CANADA TIP

Canada has many great places for short weekend trips, from provincial parks and small towns to museums, festivals, lakes, and beaches. Before travelling, Canadians often check the weather, road conditions, opening hours, and accommodation availability. Planning ahead can make your weekend trip easier and more enjoyable.

A Two-Day Weekend Plan

Emma and her family are planning a weekend trip to Ottawa. They are going to leave Mississauga on Saturday morning. They will drive for about five hours and arrive around noon.

On Saturday afternoon, they are going to visit Parliament Hill and take photos. Later, they will walk around ByWard Market and try some local food. In the evening, they are going to have dinner at a restaurant near their hotel.

On Sunday morning, they plan to visit a museum. After lunch, they will return home. Emma is excited because she is going to explore a new city and spend quality time with her family.
