6. Plan a Trip with a Partner

Answers will vary. Students should discuss the following:

- destination
- travel dates
- transportation
- accommodation
- budget
- activities
- meals

Students should practise making suggestions, agreeing, and disagreeing politely.

Example:

A: How about going to Ottawa for the weekend?

B: That sounds great! How should we get there?

A: We could take the train.

B: Good idea. Where should we stay?

A: We could book a hotel near downtown.

B: Let's check the prices first.

7. Speaking Challenge

Answers will vary.

Students should include:

- ☒ Destination
- ☒ Travel dates
- ☒ Transportation
- ☒ Accommodation
- ☒ Two activities
- ☒ Budget
- ☒ What to pack
- ☒ Weather

Example answer:

I'm planning a three-day trip to Montreal in July. I'm going to travel by train and stay at a hotel downtown. I'd like to visit the Old Port and take a sightseeing tour. My budget is $800. I'll check the weather forecast before I leave and pack comfortable clothes and walking shoes.

8. Write About Your Trip

Answers will vary.

Students should write 5–8 sentences and try to use:
