Speaking

Speak and Express

Speaking challenge: Imagine you are meeting your child's teacher for the first time. Ask polite questions to learn more about your child's classroom and school experience.

Practise asking these questions aloud:

- What subjects will the students study this year?
- What are your expectations for homework?
- How can I help my child at home?
- How do you communicate with parents?
- What should I do if my child has difficulty with an assignment?
- Are there any classroom rules that parents should know about?

? GUIDING QUESTIONS:

Useful Expressions

- "Could you please explain...?"
- "I'd like to know more about..."
- "Could you tell me how...?"
- "What should I do if...?"
- "Thank you for explaining that to me."

Fluency practice: Choose three questions and practise asking them naturally. Then imagine the teacher's answers and respond with a follow-up question.

? GUIDING QUESTIONS:

Writing model

Subject: Follow-Up Questions After the Open House

Dear Ms. Brown,

Thank you for explaining the classroom routines at the open house. I would like to know how much time students should spend on homework each evening. Could you also recommend any reading activities we can do at home?

Thank you for your time and support.

Kind regards,

Your Name

Your turn: Write your own email in 60-100 words.

 Words, words, words

Vocabulary in context:

- Open house: An event when parents can visit a school or classroom.
- Expectations: Things that students are expected to do.
- Assignments: Tasks or pieces of work given to students.
- Progress: Improvement or development in learning.
- Arrange a meeting: Make plans to meet someone at a specific time.

 Celebrate Your Progress

Think about what you learned this week.

1. Can you ask a teacher about classroom expectations?
2. Can you understand a school notice about an open house?
3. Can you explain how you will support your child's learning?
4. Which new words or expressions will you use in a real conversation?

CANADA TIP

Building a Relationship with Your Child's Teacher

In Canada, schools encourage communication between parents and teachers. An open house is a good opportunity to introduce yourself, understand classroom routines, and learn how to support your child.

You do not need to wait for an open house to ask questions. If you have concerns, you can usually contact the teacher by email or request a meeting. Be polite, explain your concern clearly, and ask what you can do to help your child at home.

Remember that school practices vary, so ask your child's teacher about the expectations at your particular school.

Reading

Read the following notice from a school.

Welcome to Our Classroom!

Dear Parents and Guardians,

We are pleased to invite you to our school open house on Thursday, October 22, from 6:00 p.m. to 7:30 p.m. During the open house, you will have an opportunity to meet your child's teacher, visit the classroom, and learn about our learning goals and classroom expectations.

Students are expected to arrive on time, bring their learning materials, complete their assignments, and treat others with respect. Homework will be assigned regularly. Parents can support their children by establishing a study routine and encouraging daily reading.

If you have questions or concerns about your child's progress, please contact the teacher by email or arrange a meeting.

We look forward to meeting you!

Sincerely,

The Grade 4 Teaching Team
