Speaking

Speak and Express

Speaking Challenge: Practise asking the teacher questions about the trip.
Use the following situations:

1. You are not sure what time your child will return.
2. You want to know if lunch is provided.
3. Your child has a food allergy.
4. You want to know if parents can volunteer.
5. You cannot afford the trip fee.
6. You want to know whether students need to bring extra money.
7. You are concerned about transportation and supervision.

❓ GUIDING QUESTIONS:

Asking questions	Useful Expressions.
Could you please tell me...?	My child has a food allergy.
What time will the students return?	My child needs to take medication.
Is lunch provided?	I have a question about the cost.
How will the students get there?	I cannot afford the full amount.
Will teachers supervise the students?	I would like to volunteer.
Is there a deadline for payment?	I have signed the permission form.

Fluency Tip: Practise asking complete questions rather than using single words. For example, instead of saying "Lunch?", say "Could you please tell me if students need to bring their own lunch?"

Writing Challenge
Your child has brought home a permission form for a school trip. You have two questions:

- You want to know if lunch is provided.
- You want to ask whether the school offers financial assistance because the trip fee is difficult for your family to afford.

Write a short email to your child's teacher.

❓ GUIDING QUESTIONS:

Useful Expressions:

Starting your email:
- Dear Mr. Smith,
- Dear Ms. Brown,
- I am writing about the upcoming school trip.
- I have a few questions about the permission form.

Asking questions:
- Could you please clarify...?
- I would like to know whether...
- Could you let me know if...?

Explaining a situation:
- The trip fee is a little difficult for our family at the moment.
- I would appreciate any information about financial assistance.
- My child has a food allergy that I would like to inform you about.

Ending your email:
- Thank you for your help.
- I look forward to hearing from you.
- Kind regards,

CANADA TIP

Canada Tip: School Trips in Canada

In Canada, schools organize educational trips throughout the year. Remember:

- Permission: Parents must sign a permission form.
- Payment: Ask about fees or financial assistance.
- Transportation: Students may travel by school bus.
- Safety: Teachers supervise students.
- Volunteers: Parents may be invited to help.

Remember: Read the form carefully and ask the teacher if you have questions.
